“Being perfect is about being able to look your friends in the eye and know that you didn't let them down, because you told them the truth. And that truth is that you did everything that you could. There wasn't one more thing that you could've done. Can you live in that moment, as best you can, with clear eyes and love in your heart? With joy in your heart? If you can do that, gentlemen, then you're perfect.”

A LETTER TO MY SON: RYAN KRISTOPHER MOYE

Dear Ryan:

You are such a wonderful Blessing from God! From the day that I looked into your beautiful blue eyes to now, you have brought nothing but pure joy to me and those around you. You were always such a loving little boy who had a special gift of caring about others and a natural talent for sports. As a student at Georgetown Day School, Washington, DC, you studied hard, were determined, overcame obstacles, and succeeded. You were well loved by teachers and students alike as you were friendly, outgoing and social. From multiple play dates as a child to establishing lasting friendships as a teenager and young adult, you have always endeared others to you. Your love for sports and powerful athletic abilities led you to success in varsity basketball, soccer and lacrosse. Your quick wit, great sense of humor, and high capacity memory have led to accomplished acting skills, which you have used in plays and dramatic presentations in both school and church.

At Susquehanna University, you have continued to be you, while the special qualities of your childhood grew to greater heights. You have employed good study/work ethics and have been determined to make a positive difference. As it is your desire to see others embrace and respect diversity and cultural differences while ensuring fairness and equality for all, you have worked tirelessly with key officials of Susquehanna to promote that. I believe that you have made a difference! In furtherance of that goal, you have served as the Vice President and Planning Chair of The Brotherhood, to educate the campus on minority issues. With integrity, tenacity and fairness, you have handled well the job of Resident Assistant and Head Resident of Smith Hall. As Staff Writer, for The Crusader Newspaper, your articles have helped to enlighten and broaden perspectives. You have given your all and helped to establish Susquehanna University's first TV station, as its Technical Director. And then, you further widened your own horizons by studying abroad at Temple University's International Program in Tokyo, Japan during the spring semester of your junior year!

Ryan, the family and I are so proud of you and the many accomplishments you have achieved throughout the years. I am equally proud that you have remained loving, caring, respectful, and disciplined. You have maintained strong religious and family values. I have watched you grow to be the extraordinary, sensitive, and successful young man that you have become. I am confident that you will continue to meet the challenges of life with open arms and create your own paths to success. What more could a Mother ask of her Son? Congratulations on your graduation from Susquehanna University!

I love you so much, Mom

YOU'LL BE HEADING OUT INTO THE "REAL WORLD," I LOOK FORWARD TO SHARING LIFE EXPERIENCES AND MANY MORE SISTER MOMENTS. TAKE A FEW MOMENTS TO LOOK BACK AT ALL YOU HAVE DONE AND WHERE YOU ARE TODAY, AND MAKE SURE TO PAT YOURSELF ON THE BACK. IF YOU DON'T, I'LL DO IT FOR YOU THE NEXT TIME HE SEES YOU. KEEP FOLLOWING YOUR HEART AND DREAMS - I CANNOT WAIT TO SEE WHERE THEY TAKE YOU.

TO SISTER: "STAY HERE, HOWEVER, WE DON'T LOOK BACKWARDS FOR VERY LONG. WE'RE KEEP MOVING FORWARD, OPENING UP NEW DOORS AND DOING
NEW THINGS, BECAUSE WE'RE CURIOUS... AND CURIOSITY KEEPS LEADING US
DOWN NEW PATHS." - WALT DISNEY
I LOVE YOU LEO
